March 14, 1983

Dear Mr. Newman,

My wife and I want to express our thanks to you for so graciously giving to us of your valuable time and for giving to us the benefits of your wealth of experience in a realm with which we are very unfamiliar. It was a fascinating afternoon for both of us.

I'm enclosing a photograph of the 1838 half dime and a copy of the page from the 35th edition of "A Guide Book of United States Coins" (Yeoman) that led us to think we might have had a rare one. We had inferred from the descriptions that there were only an extremely few produced with stars, and further, it looked to us that the stars on this coin are slightly smaller than those of later coins of this type. So it was not a question of drapery or no drapery, but stars or no stars and star size.

Again, we thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Alex. B. Churchill

Dear Mr. Churchill:

I am enclosing appropriate excerpts from the reliable written material on half dimes which lists the various varieties and photographs of them. It also lists their valuation.

There is substantial confusion in the listing in the Yeoman book and I hope the enclosed will help straighten it out.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Ms. Shepherd:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation I am enclosing a photocopy of a newly discovered denomination of a 1793 Cincinnati scrip issue. I would like to know who the signatory may be as I do not have confidence in the name given in the illustration enclosed. There were not many people in Cincinnati at that time and one who was economically situated to issue notes should be well known. Please enlighten me.

I am also enclosing photocopies of the pages of my third edition of Early Paper Money of America relating to the matter.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Newman:

I apoligize for the delay in answering your letter of August 11 but we have a very small reference staff and this month has been extremely busy.

Fortunately the library is rich in account books of the early 1790's and I went through several of them. Almost immediately I found the name of Robert Taitt. His name appears many times. I believe this is the man on your piece of scrip.

Taitt is also listed in a manuscript titled "Citizens of Cincinnati before November 1, 1793. Apparently he ran a grocery and dry goods store which would give him a position of prominence in the city. This list states that he died in December, 1793.

Enclosed you will find a copy of "Citizens" as well as several pages from Smith and Findlay's account book for 1792. I also included the page from Greve's Centennial History of Cincinnati which mentions Robert and William Tait.

I hope this information will be useful to you. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Shepherd:

Your location of the name Robert Tait(t) is obviously accurate and I thank you for straightening out this scrip issuer. Perhaps the quire of paper he bought was for printing the scrip.

I do not know what spelling to use but believe I should use Taitt, as appears on the note. His advertising was probably a simplified spelling.

Thank you for your efficient kindness.

Dear Mr. Newman:

As Professor George E. Mylonas is in the hospital, I have been asked to teach his course in Numismatics at Washington University.

To give the students opportunity for independent research, I would like to request fifteen Greek coins, preferably silver, each coin different, so that each student in the class may have the opportunity of being handed one coin, which he will then the chance to research, decide whether it is genuine, identify it as to city and date of origin. If you have information on the coins, I will, of course, record this and code the coin given to each student. In other words, the student whose name begins with "A" will have coin number one. I will have a record of what it is and when the student goes for research, we will be able to compare the results. This will be a unique educational contribution for these students. We will be most grateful to you for your cooperation in lending the coins.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Alex and Eleanor:

Your mother and father were numismatic buddies of mine for many decades. I have missed working with Val on numismatic research and now Lisa has joined him.

I realize that their supervision of the National Collection was a complex and difficult one with many satisfactions and many problems. It took people with their ability and devotion to remain in charge for so long a span of years.

The pleasant memories of their lives will always be something to inspire you.

Thrive,

Dear Mr. Clark:

How nice of you to give me an honorary life membership in SPMC. It is sincerely appreciated.

I will try to be in attendance at 10 AM Saturday, November 17, 2001 if I do not leave early for New York for Thanksgiving. I plan to leave the next day.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Dear Randy Clark:
I have never kept data on which signatures of authorized signers on early paper money bills have been found. My primary problem was whether a signer was not authorized, particularly on counterfeits or bills signed by a substitute. As you point out there were authorized signers who were unavailable or not needed.
The tie in of Connecticut copper coinage participants and paper money signers is new to me.
If there is any other need of yours where I can be of help please feel free to call on me.
I hope you are having a happy holiday season. Thrive. Eric P. Newman

Monday Night Feature

Eric P. Newman

"MONEY OF EARLY AMERICA"

Monday, November 18, 1974
Cocktails — 6:00 p.m.
Dinner — 7:00 p.m.

The Clayton Club is indeed fortunate in presenting Eric P. Newman as our guest lecturer for our next Monday night feature on November 18, 1974.

Mr. Newman, Executive Vice President and Secretary of Edison Bros. Stores, has spent a life time collecting coins and researching their backgrounds. As a result, he is today an internationally known authority on numismatics. He is the author of numerous books and articles on the subject and as a result of his studies many forgeries have been exposed. He has been Chairman of the United States Assay Commission and is founder of the Eric P. Newman Numismatics Society, which provides information services to collectors and dealers and promotes the cultural and educational value of numismatics. He and his wife are world travelers and have lectured on their many trips to over 100 countries.

Mr. Newman's lecture, which will be illustrated, promises an exciting and entertaining evening. Guests are welcome and it is suggested that you make your reservations early, $7.00 per person, by calling David Cleage, Club Manager, or Bobbie Gaia, Club Secretary. Phone: [redacted]

Dear Charles:

I am enclosing information which you requested. I believe the last time I spoke before the Rotary Club of Clayton, the subject was Antarctica.

I think that a program entitled Early Missouri Money would be of interest. However, I could give Money of Colonial America, or Benjamin Franklin's Money Activities, or Money of the Civil War, if what I suggested is not the best topic.

I believe we scheduled the talk for June 10, 1986 at 12:00 Noon in the Community Center.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me.

Dear Eric:

Just a note to compliment you on your educational and informative talk Tuesday at Rotary. Your remarks and visual aids were so interesting the Program Committee intends to request an encore on a future date.

I got a fall out from your skillful presentation inasmuch as it enhanced my standing as Program Chairman.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL ATTENDANCE RULES

1. Membership in the club shall automatically terminate if absent from four consecutive meetings of the club or if percentage of attendance is less than 60% during the first or second six months of the club's fiscal year.
2. Attendance must be evidenced by the member being present for at least 60% of the meeting session.
3. Any member may make up an absence by attendance at the regular meeting of any other Rotary Club six days before, the day of absence itself, or six days later.

Thoughts to ponder...
[contributed by Roy Bergmann]

"Not every end is a goal. The end of melody is not its goal. However, if the melody has not reached its end it would also not have reached its goal.....A parable." -Nietzsche

"To do great work a man must be very idle as well as very industrious." -Samuel Butler II

"Perched on the loftiest throne in the world, we are still sitting on our own behind." -Montaigne

PERSON A: "Has anybody ever told you how wonderful you are?"
PERSON B: "No."
PERSON A: "Well, then, where did you get the idea?"

Q: What did one Eskimo say to another Eskimo after he told him his wife was kissing another man?
A: That's no skin off my nose!
